

Join us for the Third Annual Connecticut Conference on Hoarding
“Community Response to Hoarding”

Thursday, May 25, 2017 ~ 9:00am – 4:00pm at Central Connecticut State University - Alumni Hall, Student Center

This year’s conference will focus on developing a community response strategy to working with individuals with Hoarding Disorder by integrating a variety of resources. The day will operate under the framework of a complex case which requires a thoughtful intervention from the community. The first half of the day will review the immediate implications from a code, safety and emergency response perspective. The afternoon will focus on understanding the opportunities, limitations and considerations as the case progresses forward and additional resources are integrated.
